About

Limitless_Zenith entered the event at session 5. (note to self figure out later) and was not present during the start of the event. Unlike most players, they did not choose to join any civ shortly after joining the event and instead decided to explore the world in its entirety, see every civ, and guide people between them.

Every time they went to a new, unique place they would leave a sign with (usually) a sea pickle next to it, titled:

"Limitless_Zenith was here, session number"

History

Session 5, joined era

Found podzil, did some work in podzil to make up for taking some equipment

Session5+, began their life of adventure, looking for other civs besides podzil and ferrying people between them.

Sessions 6-8 discovered stairway to heaven as well as metro.

Session 10?, realised they liked being a part of Podzil and working with Podzil and became a Podzil citizen. Although they were almost always not at base.

Session 10+, explored the quadrants of the world to fill out distant horizons chunks as much as possible
